Hereby I/we are obligated to:

- Utilize the prize money obtained from the Commitment Award only for the purpose of my/our particular project proposal as stated in my/our application.
- Submit any receipts, bills, and/or financial statements indicating how the prize money was/is being used by the beginning of July 2022. Using the prize money after the initial phase (first year) requires the agreement of the Engagementpreis Foundation.
- Present the prize money's impact on the project at a workshop (or via Skype when a face-to-face presentation isn't possible) and produce a video documenting the project's progress by the beginning of June 2022.
- Pay the prize money back in full in the case that the jury/Commitment Award Committee finds the prize money was/is being misused.

Furthermore, I/we agree to the following terms and conditions:

- I/we will keep the Engagementpreis Foundation and the Willy Brandt School of Public Policy at the University of Erfurt informed about all significant changes of the surrounding circumstances which may affect the success of my/our application and/or project even after the application deadline.
- The Engagementpreis Foundation, the Brandt School, and their partners for the Commitment Award are allowed to publish information about my/our project, as well as my/our ideas and information found in my/our application, including pictures and videos, on their websites or in any newsletter, press release, press conference, and/or other publications.
- In the case my/our project wins the prize money, I am/we are prepared to present the progress of our project to prize auditors, who will be named by the Commitment Award Committee.
